

Have you ever wanted to do something that really will change lives? Are you bored of the usual commute and the dull 9-5 existence of an office job? Do you have good graduate qualifications? Can you show great intrapersonal skills, flexibility, creativity and resilience?

Then teaching could be the profession for you!

The Kent and Medway teaching schools' network are running two information events this autumn to help you find out more.

Events:

14th November, 7pm at Maidstone Hilton Hotel.

22nd November, 7pm at Best Western Hotel, Canterbury.

Come along to one to:

- Find out about salaries and bursaries available to you whilst you train
- Understand the process, from application to successful course completion
- Talk to successful past trainees who are now in their first years of teaching
- Talk to schools and universities offering teacher training in Kent and Medway.

Express your intention of attending one of the events at :

<https://kmtsn14nov2017maidstone.eventbrite.co.uk>

<https://kmtsn22nov2017canterbury.eventbrite.co.uk>

For more information about teacher training, ask at your local school or login here <http://www.teachkentmedway.org.uk>.